1. Personal data we process

We process personal data because you use our services and/or because you provide this data to us yourself. This may include: first and last name, address details, date of birth, telephone number, email address, bank account number (for payments), and identity document details (such as passport number, nationality, and expiry date) – solely to comply with the legal requirement to register guests with the Spanish authorities.

2. Purposes of processing

We process personal data for handling payments, fulfilling reservations or bookings, complying with legal obligations for guest registration with Spanish authorities, and contacting you when necessary to perform our services.

3. Automated decision-making

MyHolidayHomeInDenia does not make decisions with significant impact on individuals based solely on automated processing without human intervention.

4. Data retention

We retain personal data only as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, unless otherwise required by law: guest registration data – 1 to 3 years depending on local regulations; billing and payment data – 7 years (tax requirement); other communications – up to 1 year after your stay.

5. Sharing personal data with third parties

We share personal data only with third parties when necessary to perform our contract with you or to comply with a legal obligation (such as reporting to Spanish authorities).

6. Cookies and similar technologies

MyHolidayHomeInDenia does not use cookies or similar technologies.

7. Your rights

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal data, to object to processing, to withdraw your consent, or to request the transfer of your data. Send your request to info@myholidayhomeindenial.com. For verification, please include a copy of your ID with your photo, MRZ, passport number, and citizen service number obscured.

8. Data security

We take appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorised access, and unwanted disclosure, including encryption of storage and transmission, restricted access to authorised persons, and secure destruction of paper documents.
